The NSS Unit of DR. R.G. Bhojar Arts, Commerce, and Science College, Seloo, Dist-Wardha, organized a special residential camp in the village of Chowki near Seloo from January 15 to January 21, 2024. The main theme of the camp was "Meri Matti Mera Desh." A total of 50 NSS volunteers participated in the residential camp, comprising 15 boys and 35 girls. They were informed about the location and their responsibilities.

Objectives of the Camp:

- 1. Cleanliness Drive and Hygiene

2. Women Empowerment
3. Health Awareness
4. Agriculture Development
5. Waste Management
6. Natural Farming Laws

January 16, 2024 - Opening Ceremony

The NSS Cell of DR. R.G. Bhojar Arts, Commerce, and Science College, Seloo, organized a seven-day special day and night camp from January 15, 2024, to January 21, 2024. The inauguration of the camp was held on Tuesday, January 16, 2024. The inaugural function began with the lighting of the lamp by the Chief Guest, the Guest of Honor, and the Principal, Dr. Sanjay.

January 17, 2024

All groups gathered on the ground at 6:30 in the morning to rejuvenate their minds, bodies, and souls. The day started with yoga, followed by cleaning the camp premises and village streets with great energy and enthusiasm. During the first session, the volunteers interacted with Mr. Chetan Palikar, who talked about 'Yuva Sawand Udhojakata Vyati ani Sambhawana'. In the second session, Mr. Sumit Ugemuge delivered a lecture on Mental Health.

January 18, 2024

All the volunteers trekked to visit the hill near Chowki Temple, engaging in entertaining physical activities. In the first session of the day, Mrs. Shilpa Dhamane delivered a lecture on "Aahar ani Aple Arogya" (Nutrition and Our Health) to the NSS volunteers, which included a productive interaction. Dr. Abhijit Patil from the Department of Marathi delivered a talk on personality development, providing students with essential skills in personal stress management, motivation, leadership, career goal setting, and achieving academic and career success.

January 19, 2024

The theme for the fifth day of the camp was the creation of a healthy society through community health service. In the morning, a blood sample test was conducted, with a day-long blood sample collection for general pathology tests. Thanks to extensive promotion in the village, there was an overwhelming response from the locals and NSS volunteers. Refreshments were provided free of cost. The NSS volunteers also organized a cultural event featuring various performances, showcasing the camp's activities.

January 20, 2024 - Closing Ceremony

The NSS seven-day special camp concluded with a closing ceremony inaugurated by College Principal Dr. Sanjay Kanode. NSS Program Officer Ashish Shastrakar presented the camp report. Volunteers shared their camp experiences, and locals expressed their gratitude to the NSS team and organizers for raising awareness about cleanliness, women empowerment, the constitution and law, and the mental health of college students. They also requested the NSS camp to be held in their village again next year. The camp ended with many nostalgic memories.

Bhure sprints to glory

Leads RTMNU's gold rush winning 100m dash, city's Neha Dhabale (400m) and Chaitali Borekar (1500m) also bag golds; Pune and Kolhapur marginally ahead on medal count

■ Sports Reporter

Ajay Khade of Shivaji University, Kolhapur won bronze by carving out 10.98 secs.

Bhure had won a silver in All India meet in Chennai eight days ago and pocketed a bronze medal in the same event in North East West Inter-University Athletics Meet in Bhubaneswar in December. Girls brought three of the four medals won by RTMNU. Neha Dhabale, won gold in women's 400m running by completing it in 57.96 seconds. Akanksha Gavade, PAH Solapur University clocked 58.01 seconds for silver. Titiksha Patole of Shivaji University, Kolhapur won bronze finishing in 58.37 seconds. Chaitali Borkar brought the third gold for RTMNU in women's 1500m running with a time of 4:53.32 min. In a close chase, Vedashree Lonari of Savitribai Phule Pune University took 4:55.30 minutes for silver and Purva Shevale of Shivaji University bagged bronze. V Nageshwari of RTMNU won bronze in women's 100m running with a time of 12.97 seconds. Performing better than her, Manjusha Shetty from SNDT Women's University, Mumbai won silver, clocking 12.85 seconds while Charvi Poojari of University of Mumbai won gold by clocking an impressive time of 12.72 seconds. League matches of basketball, badminton, table tennis and volleyball are getting fierce with knock-outs approaching. Finals of all the events will be held on January 15.

RASHFRASANT Tukadoji Maharaj Nagpur University (RTMNU) bagged four medals including three golds and a bronze in 25th Maharashtra State Inter-University Sports Festival 'Krida Mahotsav' being hosted by the university at its Ravi Nagar Sports Complex.

The hosts bagged highest number of gold medals in athletics on Saturday. But, in tally of total medals, Savitribai Phule Pune University is leading with seven medals, followed by Shivaji University, Kolhapur with six. PAH Solapur University and RTMNU have four medals each. The contest of 23 universities from all across Maharashtra will continue next couple of days.

In-form Adarsh Bhure of RTMNU won gold in 100 metre men's running by clocking an impressive time of 10.83 seconds. Vinit Dinkar of PAH Solapur University won silver with a timing of 10.87 seconds.
