MODULE 1- SPOKEN ENGLISH

Subject Code	Title of the Paper	Credits Per Semester	Hours
ELC 001 SE	Spoken English	2	30

Course Description

Students for whom English is a second language of communication have many challenges when speaking English. Although they develop good vocabulary and learn to use sentences with minimum grammar mistakes, their pronunciation leaves much to be desired. However hard they work, the students can correct their pronunciation only with the help of a professional trainer of pronunciation. Unless this happens, their listeners will not understand them and proper communication will not be happening.

This Speaking Skills course gives any student correction and guidance right from the basic diagnosis of individual pronunciation discrepancies to refining one's conversational and presentation skills.

Objectives

The main objectives of this course are

1. To help students identify their flaws in English pronunciation and have an individual plan to rectify them.
2. To help students understand the influences on correct English pronunciation.
3. To help students adapt their speech organs to get near-perfect native English pronunciation.
4. To provide all the necessary knowledge and skills to the students to remember to make a life-long goal to have good English pronunciation.

Content

Introduction to English pronunciation, Phonetics and your pronunciation, Understanding our speech organs and their vitality in having good pronunciation, Vowel sounds, Consonant sounds, Syllable stress, Word stress, Sentence stress, Intonation, Mother Tongue Influence, Speech content, Audience, Introduction, content and closing, Clarity, Fluency, Voice and Pitch, Mannerisms and Gestures and Presentation skills

Student Learning Outcomes (SLO)

After completing this course the students will have

- eliminated their mother tongue influences in English pronunciation.
- learnt correct English sounds.
- developed fluency and clarity of speech.
- understood to use Phonetics to improve their pronunciation.
- ☑ gained speaking skills to communicate effectively with any listener.
