

About Sanstha

Vidyabharti Sansths, Wardha has set an illustrious example in the field of education over the last two decades in rural areas, reaching beyond the boundaries of knowledge. This group includes many colleges, including Dr. R. G. Bhoyar Arts, Commerce, and Science College in Seloo, Wardha. Dr. Rajesh Bhoyar, an eminent intellect and philanthropist, founded Dr. R. G. Bhoyar Arts, Commerce & Science College in 2008 and it has inspired students all over India. He founded this college in Seloo, Wardha, with Mahatma Gandhi's ideals serving as a holistic foundation. Here, the teaching system is more focused on the students. A practical approach to teaching methods is used to prepare students in rural areas to face life's challenges boldly and orient student for nationwide academic competition.

Through innovative educational programmes, this sanstha strongly believes in imparting and propagating knowledge and practical skills in core and frontier areas of all major fields of Science, Arts, Commerce, and Management in rural areas. Students are developed into a new group of professionals with exceptional competence, a strong sense of life values, and a strong commitment to their responsibilities to both profession and nation. Students are mentored rather than taught, and they are guided to success rather than forced to pursue academics.

Dr. R. G. Bhoyar Arts, Commerce & Science College's greatest asset is its highly qualified and hardworking staff. They are dedicated to carrying out their responsibilities. The faculty members are mentors as well as teachers. They assist their students in all aspects of their academics and assist them in moving forward successfully.

Chairman of the Sanstha, Dr. R. G. Bhoyar, a visionary scholar, believed that educational institutions are epicenters of knowledge. They should polish and cut the rough stones into gleaming gems. He established a variety of educational programmes, including Bachelor's, and master's degrees in commerce, science, computer science, management, and pharmacy. With its distinct individuality, the Dr. R. G. Bhoyar Group of Institutions serves as a model for all educational institutions in rural areas.
